

Thrift Savings Plan BULLETIN

for Agency TSP Representatives

Subject: Thrift Savings Plan Leaflet for CSRS Employees

Date: July 31, 2001

The Federal Retirement Thrift Investment Board has revised the leaflet "Take a Closer Look at the TSP", which was developed for CSRS employees.¹ A copy of the leaflet is available from the "Forms & Publications" section of the Thrift Savings Plan (TSP) Web site at www.tsp.gov. Agencies may also order copies of this leaflet by following the instructions contained in TSP Bulletin 95-1, dated January 3, 1995.

Agency responsibilities. Designed to highlight the benefits of contributing to the TSP, the leaflet may be provided to CSRS employees upon their reappointments to the Federal service and during TSP briefings.² Agencies should also provide the leaflet to CSRS employees upon request. The leaflet is updated periodically, and the latest version is always on the TSP Web site.

PAMELA-JEANNE MORAN
Deputy Director
Office of External Affairs

¹ CSRS refers to the Civil Service Retirement System, including CSRS Offset, the Foreign Service Retirement and Disability System, and other equivalent Federal retirement systems.

² See TSP Bulletin 01-4, Participation in the Thrift Savings Plan, dated February 2, 2001, for more information about materials that should be provided to rehired CSRS employees.

Inquiries: Questions concerning this bulletin should be directed to the Federal Retirement Thrift Investment Board at 202-942-1460.

Chapter: This bulletin may be filed in Chapter 2, General Information.

Supersedes: This bulletin supersedes TSP Bulletin 96-10, Thrift Savings Plan Leaflet for CSRS Employees, dated March 29, 1996.